INTERESTING FACTS

1400 candidates were auditioned for the part of Scarlett O'Hara for the movie Gone With The Wind.

Grace Kelly (with her husband Prince Rainier) was the first actress whose picture was placed on a U.S. Postage Stamp.

The Role of Sundance (from Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid) was originally written for Jack Lemmon, and Marlon Brando turned down the part before Robert Redford accepted it.

Buddy Ebsen was originally cast as the Tin Man in the original Wizard of Oz.

According to the Book Publishers Association fewer than 50% of U.S. adults have never read a book cover to cover. TV, of course, may have something to do with this fact.

In the movie You Light Up My Life, Didi Conn played the lead and lip-synchronized all the songs. Debby Boone sang the hit record of the same title but few people know that it was Kacey Cisyk (an up and coming singer) who actually did the singing in the movie.
